UXBRIDGE LIBRARY PRESENTS

Lunch at the Legion

Royal Canadian Legion
Branch 170, Uxbridge
Thursday, June 16, noon-2:00 pm

Cost: $10.00 (HST included)
(Vets. & Legion Members $8.00)

'A HYSTERICAL LOOK AT THE GERMS OF FAMOUS PEOPLE'

Everyone is welcome to join in once again for GREAT food and FUN at the Royal Canadian Legion in Uxbridge. Our guest this year will be Dr. Ross Pennie, who will be discussing his newest mystery novel, 'Tampered', which is set in a lively senior's residence where "nasty things are happening". This is the second in a fictional series, which Ross is centering around a potential epidemic in small-city Ontario. Our guest, a disease specialist at McMaster University and a practicing doctor at Brantford General Hospital, will also engage the audience with his light-hearted look at the path of life we all travel as the years pass! Mark your calendar now and pick up a ticket soon at the library for an amusing 'day out' with Ross Pennie, as he shares his passion of writing, with telling insight, from his profession as a doctor!

Children's & Teen Programs

SPLASH!

SUMMER READING CLUB 2011

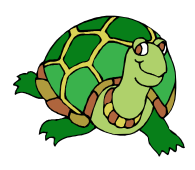

This popular summer activity is free of charge to students entering grades 2—7. Participants select materials of their own interest and ability level to encourage reading while at the same time helping to maintain skills and competency during the vacation. This club is NOT a contest and is designed for pleasure –not pressure. After all it is the holidays!

The SPLASH Reading Club will kick off on Wednesday July 6 @ 2 pm. Activity booklets, posters and stickers, all on the club theme, will be distributed, along with a cool summer treat! If unable to attend students can register and pick up a club package in the Children's Department until July 20.

Every Wednesday club members are invited to attend get-togethers for exciting, action-packed splash activities planned to enhance the reading club theme! Come if you can!

Special Shows..

'ZOO TO YOU'

Thursday July 21
2:00 pm—3:00 pm
Grades JK—2
Cost: $4.00 each

Join us for this great show featuring a myriad of animals to include turtles, toads, ferrets, mini rabbits and a 'house hippo'. This show comes highly recommended as a fascinating, safe and educational event, especially for the kids who love 'hands on' adventures. Spaces are LIMITED!

BIRDS'N'BATS

Monday August 15
2:00 pm—4:00 pm
Grades 3—8
Cost: $4.00 each

Join us for this fascinating show complete with various birds of prey that may include owls, eagles, falcons, and hawks. The program comes to us from the Centre for the Conservation of Specialized Species. The presenters will discuss the ongoing work of breeding at the centre to help ensure a stable population of some of these endangered species! Learn about the methods of rescuing and healing injured birds and their release back into nature. Along with the birds, the program will also include a look at the 'life of bats' and their fit in our ecosystem. An event not to be missed!

TICKETS FOR BOTH SHOWS AVAILABLE ON June 13.

Speaking Chinese

The purpose of the program is to learn the basics of the Mandarin language and it is open for all students, regardless of their knowledge of Chinese.

Thursdays July 7 to August 25
(miss August 4)

- Ages 6—10, 3:30—4:30 pm
- Ages 11—teen, 5—6 pm

Cost: $5.00 per class. Sign up for a block of classes and attend the weeks which best fit your family holiday schedule.

HEAD START

Kindergarten Readiness Program Wednesdays in July

Ages 3 1/2—5
10:00 AM—11:00 AM
Cost: $40.00 / 4 weeks

Kindergarten has changed since we went to school and it has implications on what a child needs to have acquired prior to beginning. Give your child a head start this summer with a four-week program designed and delivered by an experienced Masters-educated Kindergarten teacher. Each class will focus on literacy skill development through the use of stories, songs, and engaging activities taken directly from the Kindergarten classroom. Parents will be invited to join in at the end of each class for a brief tutorial on how these skills can be further developed at home. Class leader: Michelle Johnson. Register June 13, 2011

Stories from the Vinyl Cafe

Stuart McLean's first book of short stories is this year's Pass the Book title. Pass the Book, a Durham Region community-wide read program, aims to foster discussion and community through shared stories. The book is made up of small episodes from the lives of accident prone record store owner Dave, his wife Morley, their children Stephanie and Sam, Arthur the dog, Galway the cat, and assorted neighbours.
