GOOD USED BOOK SALE

Sat. Nov. 10, 10 am to Tues. Nov. 13, 5 pm.
@ the Library during regular hours.

The Friends would like to thank the community and surrounding areas of Uxbridge for their generous book donations over the past ten years. Thousands of books have made their way to the library book shelves and private homes. Sale proceeds have bought DVDs, CDs, talking books, prizes for programs and numerous other items for the library. Thank you.

To celebrate our 10th Anniversary we are having a free raffle. For every purchase made at the book sale, book lovers will be given a cupcake and a chance to win one of six Blue Heron $35 gift certificates.

Cupcakes made by The Village Cupcakery and Caf .
All proceeds go to the Library.

Thanks to all our patrons who supported our Fines for Food program in September, while getting fines reduced you contributed 290 items of food that were delivered to the Loaves & Fishes.

“125th Anniversary Cookbook”

“Calling all Cooks and Bakers”

We have had a terrific response to our new Reading Buddies program that we are offered this fall! Almost 30 Little Buddies from our community have been matched with Big Buddies. The kids will have lots of fun improving their literacy skills while some teens get an opportunity to earn some valuable community service hours!

If you missed our registration this fall, we will be offering this 8-week program again in January and February. Information and registration forms will be available in the December newsletter.

A big THANK YOU to the sponsor of our Reading Buddies program:

5 for 5 BOOK CHAT

A flexible reading group is being organized at the Uxbridge Library. The get-togethers will be offered five afternoons and five evenings during the year.

Session 1: Jan.-May, first Thurs. afternoon of month, 1:30-3:00 pm.

Session 2: May-Nov., first Wed. evening of month, 7:30-9:00 pm.

There would not be meetings in July,
August or December.

Hopefully this design will satisfy everyone; those preferring daytime outings and those who can only attend at night.
At the present time, as a starting point, the categories for selection, in no particular order, could include: winner from Uxbridge Reads, classics, Canadian author, members choice, non-fiction, biography, mystery, medal winner, favourite fiction, staff picks. If you have considered becoming involved with a book club, perhaps this is for you. It is a great opportunity to share opinions and talk about your favourites, but also be open to reading books you may not have otherwise chosen!

START UP for SESSION 1 on Thur.
Jan. 10 at 1:30 pm. We will talk about recent reads and choose the five categories most appear interested in tackling. A time of the year to re-energize, share the love of reading, and perhaps make some new friends over a cup of coffee!

JOB SEARCHING WORKSHOP @ the Library

November 15 , 2:00-4:00 pm

Would you like to find a job but are not sure where to begin?

Attending our employment workshop is a great place to start. You will learn the “ins” and “outs” of finding that job from A to Z. Danielle, an employment resource professional from Durham College Community Employment Resource Centre, will conduct an information session and answer those questions you may be afraid to ask! No need to pre-register, just drop by if interested.

TV SHOW IDEA

Join Rogers TV on Thursday, November 22 at 6:00 pm in the meeting Room for a free information session to find out how you can get involved in your local community TV station and learn how to develop and propose your show idea. Promote your activity, community project, sporting event, theatre production etc. A Rogers TV representative will be on hand to provide info about the process involved, share tips, and answer questions.
